Los Angeles People May Defeat Bill Favored by State Growers.

Opposition Due to Desire of Few Men to Hold on to Paltry Jobs.

North and South Unite for Legislation That Will Benefit Industry.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two or three small bore politicians of Los Angeles, for sake of a cheap job or two, have gone to work to prevent the enactment of the law framed for the better protection of California's great fruit in-dustry. The measure would wipe out two horticultural commissioners in each county, providing one commissioner in-stead of three and making it necessary that this one be thoroughly informed on all matters pertaining to his im-portant office.
The bill is drafted by the citrus fruit men of the South and by the deciduous fruit growers of the North, delegations of whom have appeared here before Assembly and Senate committees to urge its passage and to explain the need of it.
Collier of Corona introduced the measure in the Assembly with slight amendments; it has been reported back favorably, while the companion bill in the Senate also has received a favor-able committee report. But for the ob-jections from Los Angeles county the measure would go through both Houses with a whoop. Even now it is believed the Legislature will place more weight in the claims of the fruit men for the protection of their industry than in the pleas of a few office-holders who want to hang onto their jobs.

TERMS OF BILL.

Under the present law the State ap-pointed one commissioner upon receipt of a petition signed by twenty-five or more owners of orchards. The term of the commissioner is fixed at four years and his salary is $4 for each day devoted to his duties. The pay of hor-ticultural inspectors is placed at $3.50 a day.
The appointment of the commission-ers must go to one who is specially qualified for the task and for the purpose of testing the fitness of appli-cants, a state board of horticulture, composed of the members of the State Commission of Horticulture, the official in charge of the State in-sectary at Sacramento and a third person to be named by the Governor, are to be named.
APPLICANTS MUST BE FIT.
The examiners will be called upon to submit to the Supervisors the names of applicants who, under examination, shall prove their fitness for the place and from the names so submitted, the Supervisors are to choose one.
Should no persons present them-selves for examination, or should no-one qualify, the measure so submitted, upon to name five practical fruit grow-ers, residents of the county in ques-tion, and from these the Supervisors shall name the commissioner. Pro-visions are made for the removal of a commissioner for cause on petition of twenty-five or more owners of or-chards. It was represented to the com-mittee by the fruit growers that the proposed one-man commission and the removal of the office from politics, will wonder in protecting the or-chards of the State from the insect pests and other to which the in-dustry is heir. If the politicians can be muscled the bill will get through within a few days.

LEADERS DEFIANT.

IGNORE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 1.—While the letter of President Roosevelt to the Governor regarding the Japanese question, made a deep impression upon the Legislature, the two leading anti-Japanese members of the Assem-bly assumed today a defiant attitude and declared that they would push their measures to a vote as soon as possible.
Assemblyman A. M. Drew of Fresno who had already amended his anti-alien bill by requesting the national administration, so that they clause dis-criminating against the Japanese was eliminated, took exception to the let-ter enclosed by the President written by Secretary of State Root, in which it was stated that the Federal Gov-ernment was opposed to all legislation directed against aliens, Japanese or others.
Mr. Drew declared that it was to the interest of California to protect the country from an invasion of aliens, "from the far shores of the Pacific," who would always remain citizens of the United States and whom Americans did not want.
He said that it would be incon-sistent for such aliens to own land in this country, what they had no in-tention of becoming citizens and he declared that his bill remedied a con-dition that had long been menacing the State.
The Judiciary Committee, to which Drew's bill was referred on Fri-day, rendered today a report favoring the passage of the measure without change and it was made a special or-der of business for Wednesday, to take precedence over the Johnson bills.

Investigation by Grand Jury.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
[OKLAHOMA (Okla.) Feb. 1.]—At the conclusion of the first day of the second week of the town-land fraud in-vestigation, it is evident the representa-tives of the government are certain that many indictments will be returned by the grand jury.
The testimony the Tennessee wit-ness has proved to be a revelation.
One of the twenty-five witnesses from Tennessee said in a statement to the Associated Press tonight:
"When I was subpoenaed by the government to come to such a town on the map, I had never heard of it, and wondered what Uncle Sam wanted me for. Since my arrival, I have learned that I was once the owner of a four-acre lot here. I also learned that in some mysterious manner, and about one and a half years ago, I had sold it and I suppose that's what I'll have to tell the jury."
O. E. Fagan, the Attorney-General's expert, and Dist. Atty. W. J. Gregg are now engaged in preparing indict-ments.

Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont making her debut in the ranks of the suffragettes and making others of her set as enthusiastic ad-vocates of woman's rights, Cooper Union tonight saw the liveliest wom-an's interest meeting of the season.
It was the People's Institute com-bined for the occasion with the League of Self-Supporting Women, and Prof. Charles Ziehl of Boston, was the orator, though anybody who wanted to had a chance to speak.
Mrs. Belmont, the new suffragette, acted as one of the vice-presidents. On the platform with her were Mrs. J. Gordon Harriman, Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, Mrs. Edgerton Winthrop, Jr., Mrs. Samuel Untermyer, Miss Dorothy Whitney, as well as the ever-present suffragette leader, Mrs. Harriet Stan-ton Blatch.
"If women vote," a mere man got up and asked, "what's to prevent men from bribing them with millinery and candy?"
Then, encouraged by the laugh he raised, "and what's to prevent a bachelor candidate from offering mar-riage to women voters a bribe?"
"Nothing," said Mrs. Blatch, "but what's to prevent the women from ac-cepting the offer and then voting their own way—as men do when they accept a bribe?"
Prof. Ziehl took a shot at the "housewife" theory of big families.
"We do not believe in the great families that women of old raised," he said. "The mother who raised twenty or thirty children did not raise twenty or thirty good voters. If that's the best women can give—big families—we want something differ-ent."

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The mystery which has enveloped the marital affairs of W. Gould Brokaw, millionaire club man, and sportsman and his wife, who was Miss Mary Blair, following their separation in this city last December, after a little more than a year of married life, was cleared up this afternoon. Mrs. Brokaw is suing her husband for separation, charging in-human treatment, abandonment and cruelty.
Her millionaire husband, she charges, has successfully evaded service of papers in the divorce suit.
An order, signed by Justice Mad-dox, to serve notice by publication, which was filed this afternoon in the County Clerk's office at Mineola, re-vealed the fact that the suit had been started.

S. T. PETERSBURG, Feb. 1.—The Turko-Bulgarian deadlock over the amount of money to be paid Tur-ey by Bulgaria, because of the Bul-garian declaration of independence, is practically broken, and the war cloud in Southeastern Europe has been dis-sipated by the acceptance of a plan proposed by Russia which reconciles in a novel manner the Turkish claim of $24,000,000 and the Bulgarian offer of $14,400,000.
This plan is based on the indemnity of $10,000,000 a year, which, in accord-ance with the Berlin treaty of 1864, Turkey is to pay Russia for 100 years. Three payments have been made. The Russian proposal is to remit them un-til the Turkish claim against Bulgaria is satisfied.
Russia will collect instead, $14,400,000.

FLINT SCORES IN LONG FIGHT.

Step Toward Navy Yard on Southern Coast.

Gets Order for Investigation Inserted in Bill.

Senate Committee Passes the Proposal.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive.] Senator Flint is convinced that there ought to be a navy yard and repair station on the coast of California, on the California coast. He has been working for about a year to convince Congress and the Navy Department of that fact. The Navy Department would not object to a fact it would find a navy yard, at points that might be named, very convenient, but Congress has been slow.

Senator Flint is not a man to be discouraged, however, and although he has been headed off several times, he always comes back with the declaration that the Coast needs a navy yard and must have it. When the Naval Appropriation Bill was made up, Flint had inserted in it a provision that the Secretary of the Navy should report on the need of such a yard, its location and cost, but the House calmly cut out the paragraph.

Senator Flint appeared today before the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs and secured its consent to put in the bill the following paragraph: "The Secretary of the Navy is directed to report to Congress the advisability and necessity of establishing a navy base including the navy yard and repair station, on the Pacific coast of the State of California, south of San Francisco, and to recommend the location of such navy base as deemed necessary and advisable at what place on the coast of California such base should be located, and an estimate of the cost of same."

The bill will go to conference with the House committee on the subject, but the House conference will not meet until the following week.

FAVORS HATCH HATCHY.

House Committee on Public Lands Stands Eight to Seven for the Resolution.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—By a vote of 8 to 7, the House Committee on Public Lands decided to report favorably the resolution which grants to the city and county of San Francisco the right to use the Hetch Hetchy and Lake Eleanor valleys in the Yosemite National Park for reservoir purposes.

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, chairman of the committee, voted against a favorable report on the measure, unless it included in various ways. The others who opposed the resolution in its present form were Representatives Vreeland (Minnesota), Groves (Indiana), Parsons (New York), Hamilton (Iowa), Ferris (Oklahoma), Craig (Alabama), Thomas (California), McGuire (Oklahoma), Pray (Montana), Hooten (Idaho), Gaines (Tennessee), Robinson (Arkansas) and Hammond (Minnesota).

Representative Mondell and Parsons will prepare minority reports opposing the adoption of the resolution, and the fight against the granting of the water rights of the two valleys will be carried to the floor of the House.

"The resolution as it stands," said Mr. Mondell, after the vote had been taken in the committee, "would enact into a statute a very loosely drawn agreement between the municipal and county authorities of San Francisco, and the Secretary of the Interior."

It proposes to grant certain water rights in the State of California, and divide the water of the Hetch Hetchy River, as it provides that a certain amount must be left for irrigation and water supplies for certain other sections of the State. If we enact such a law, the Reclamation Service will be going in to do the same thing for irrigation purposes in other States. I don't see how any Representative from a State having the Gulf of Mexico could vote for the resolution."

CALIFORNIANS AT CAPITAL. DINNER TO PERKINS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive.] One of the most pleasant social affairs ever participated in by the California Congressional Delegation was held Saturday evening, Jan. 30th at a fashionable restaurant in this city. It was a dinner given by the members of the House from California to Senator Perkins, on the occasion of his election for the fourth time to a seat in the upper house and in recognition of his "uniform courtesy" to the other members of the delegation, and to say in repayment of the annual dinner he has habitually given to his associates.

The list of invited guests, including the hosts themselves, was as follows: Senator Perkins, Miss Amelia Perkins, sister to the Senator, Miss Alice Malins, the Senator's niece; Senator and Mrs. Frank P. Flint, Miss Flint, Mrs. Danahy, James D. Phelan, Percy V. Long, Marston, Mason, Supervisor and Mrs. Glanville, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Orard, Mrs. Lovell White of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dinkel, Miss Gladys McLaughlin, Miss Mildred Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Leach, Justice and Justice, Mr. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Asst., Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Dyer, Colin McKinlay, Edward Rainey, J. D. Calhoun, W. F. Knightbridge, Duncan P. McKinlay, James McLaughlin, Julius Kahn, Jos. R. Knowland.

MONTHLY DEFICIT. FIFTEEN MILLIONS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The monthly comparative statement of government receipts and expenditures shows the total receipts for January, 1930, to have been $47,440,428, and the total expenditures $62,024,200, which leaves the deficit for the month $14,583,772, and for the same month of the present fiscal year, $75,814,642.

The receipts from customs during January amounted to $23,147,479, which is a gain as compared with January of last year of $47,364.

The internal revenue yielded $18,672,944, as against $19,744,155 for January 1929.

The total receipts were about $2,900,000 less for the corresponding month last year.

The expenditures, however, were

JINGOES RAMPANT IN NEW NAVAL LEGISLATION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CARSON (Nev.) Feb. 1.—A resolution introduced in the Assembly of the Nevada Legislature this afternoon by Speaker Giffen, and which, it is believed, will be adopted, is anti-Japanese in every particular.

After acknowledging the fact that the Japanese are acquiring lands and property in this and other States, the resolution states:

"The President has seen fit to take advantage of his high office to the extent of attempting to coerce the Legislature of the State of California to pass legislation in California upon this subject, and, whereas, we view with alarm this attempted encroachment of the government on States' rights, therefore be it

"Resolved, that we, the people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do hereby recommend to the State of California to pay no attention whatever to the admonishing of the President in this particular, but go ahead and enact such stringent measures as will absolutely stop forthwith the encroachment of the President."

$1,207,000 greater than for January, 1929.

The civil and miscellaneous expenditures amounted to $17,344,152, an increase of $1,000,000; war, $11,050,384, an increase of $2,200,000; navy, $9,513,384, an increase of $300,000.

The public works item shows a slight decrease. The public debt statement shows an increase of $1,000,000 less cash in the treasury, of $14,774,482.

OPIMUM IMPORTS AIMED AT. HOUSE ASKED TO PASS BILL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Coincidental with the meeting of the opium conference at Peking today, the House was called upon the first thing after convening to pass the Payne bill to prohibit the importation and use of opium in this country for other than medicinal purposes. Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means Committee brought up the bill. He explained that the bill was drafted by ex-Secretary of the Treasury, and was intended to permit the importation of opium for medicinal purposes. The bill reduces the revenue, according to Mr. Payne, $600,000 a year.

BROWNVILLE ISSUE AGAIN. FORAKER WANTS IT TAKEN UP.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Soon after the Senate met, Senator Foraker attempted to have that body begin consideration of the substitute bill introduced by Senator Aldrich authorizing the creation of a court of inquiry to determine the qualifications for re-enlistment or discharge of soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Regiment, which involved the Brownville affair. Senator McLaurin of Mississippi said he would probably speak on the measure tomorrow, and Mr. Foraker replied that he would postpone his motion until then.

Republicans are said to agree on the bill, but a filibuster would carry it over until the next session, beyond Mr. Foraker's term of office.

DECISION AGAINST TRUST. CAN'T USE COURT AS COLLECTOR.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The case of the Continental Wall Paper Company vs. Lewis Voight & Sons of Cincinnati was today decided by the Supreme Court of the United States in Voight's favor.

The suit was brought by the company on a debt of $50,000, the payment of which was related on the ground that the paper company is a trust. In effect, the decision of the court is that an admitted trust, organized contrary to the Sherman anti-trust law, cannot use the courts to collect debts.

SERVICE SECURED ON SCHLEY. WANT HIS MERGER TESTIMONY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Service has been secured by the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate upon Grant B. Schley of New York, and he will appear before the special committee of the Senate Judiciary Committee tomorrow when it resumes consideration of the resolution providing for an investigation of the President's authority for permitting the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the United States Steel Corporation.

Mr. Schley is a member of the brokerage firm of Moore & Schley, and was named by Oakleigh Thorne, president of the Trust Company of America, as one of the managers of the syndicate which held a controlling interest in the stock of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company at the time of the merger.

CADETS FORGOTTEN. SENATE MUST AID.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Unless the Senate comes to their rescue, the West Point cadets will not be able to attend the inauguration on the fourth of March. The expense of the trip to the city, by a point of order, an item providing funds for the cadets' trip to Washington was stricken from the military appropriation bill.

Another item removed from the bill was an appropriation for the construction of an asylum for refugees in time of war, and another for a storehouse on Corregidor Island, in Manila Bay.

GROWING VALUES. LAND FOR TERRITORIES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—A discussion of the various grants of land, which it is proposed to give to Arizona and New Mexico, in the Statehood bill, took place before the House Committee on Territories today. Asst. Atty.-Gen. Woodruff, for the Interior Department, declared that 2,000,000 acres, which it was proposed to give to each of the Territories, was becoming States, if sold now, would bring in the neighborhood of 25 cents an acre. He declared it as his belief that these lands would be worth nearly $5 an acre within a few years.

OFFICERS SHIFTED. GENERAL ARMY ORDERS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Several important changes in the station and duty of general officers of the army were announced today.

Brig.-Gen. Charles Morton is relieved of the command at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, and today assumed command of the Department of the Missouri, relieving Brig.-Gen. William H. Carter, who is ordered to the Philippines to command the Department of Luzon, relieving Brig.-Gen. Albert L. Mills, who is ordered to San Francisco.

Brig.-Gen. R. D. Potts, commanding the Department of the Gulf, is ordered to the Philippines, where he is Official Praise for Ships of Admiral Sperry.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

GIBRALTAR, Feb. 1.—For one hour this morning the port of Gibraltar seemed to be the scene of a naval engagement at close range. The American battleships, which arrived yesterday, were exchanging salutes with the shore, and the foreign warships in the harbor that were omitted because of Sunday.

The reverberations were incessant for an hour. The coilers promptly took up their positions alongside the battleships, and the sound of the sailing guns had died away, the land aboard these ships were playing "rag-time" to liven up the dirty and arduous work of coaling.

Each ship required from twelve to sixteen hundred tons to fill her bunkers for the homeward voyage. The Rhode Island and the New Jersey came into port this morning, and followed later by the four divisions, the Wisconsin, Illinois, Kearsarge and Kentucky, which anchored outside the breakwater.

The third division, consisting of the Louisiana, Missouri, Illinois, Kearsarge and Kentucky, which were anchored outside the breakwater.

The third division brought up the rear and presented a beautiful picture as they steamed in, glistening in the sunlight.

Admiral Sperry, accompanied by the members of his staff, came ashore at noon and called officially upon the military governor.

The Official Chronicle concludes a laudatory technical article upon the remarkable homogeneity of the fleet, with the statement that the American navy now ranks second to the British.

IDEAL. MAY GO HAYING IN AUTOMOBILE.

GEORGE BARSTOW PICTURES THE FARMER OF THE FUTURE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SAYS THEY WILL LIVE IN SMALL TOWNS AND GO OUT TO THEIR ACRES BEHIND FAST HORSES, OR IN THEIR OWN AUTO CARS—INTENSIVE FARMING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—A new social order for farmers is pictured by George Barstow, Tex. president of the Irrigation Congress, who is in Chicago on business connected with the big gathering to be held in Seattle next summer.

Great tracts of land where the farmers will not live on the land, but in towns, from which they will hasten with the aid of fast horses, or in automobiles, or in their own auto cars, to cultivate the soil, was the new thing which the irrigation expert declared would soon become a fact.

Mr. Barstow is known as the father of irrigation in the southwest. He has himself put through great private irrigation projects at Barstow, Tex., and has been a prime mover in inducing the Federal government to build the national reclamation project for 2,000,000 acres of land which once was a desert.

It is on these government tracts that the ideal farmhouse is to become a thing of the past.

"The government is laying out townships five miles square," he said. "Thus no farm will be much more than two and one-half miles from a town. The farms will be small, ten

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

ARMY FACES DEFICIENCY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Prospects are that there will be a deficiency of $4,000,000 in the amount available for the Army during the fiscal year 1930.

The original estimate last year as it came from the Paymaster-General of the Army was reduced by the Secretary of War, because it appeared there would be a lack of enlisted men. On top of this the Military Committee would further reductions.

to forty acres, and the farming intensive. Under these circumstances the farmers will live in towns of 1500 to 2000 people, enjoying all the benefits of urban life—schools, churches and social life. At the same time they will be within an easy reach of their farms as is the average Chicagoan of his business.

A tide from the city to the country has already set in. Many college graduates have chosen farming on irrigated tracts for their life work.

Mr. Barstow said that the coming congress would be the greatest gathering of its kind ever held. Over 250 delegates from forty States and Territories, and twenty foreign nations, are expected.

PAY FIVE CENTS AGAIN.

Cleveland Court Orders Resumption of Nickel Fare on Majority of Street Car Lines.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CLEVELAND (O.) Feb. 1.—In accordance with instructions recently issued by Judge Taylor of the Federal court to the receivers of the entire street railway system of this city, the rate of fare was increased, beginning this morning, on all lines except upon those where the franchise specifies a lower rate.

Approximately two-thirds of the street-car patrons are now paying a straight 5-cent fare, or eleven tickets for 50 cents. Patrons of the 3-cent fare lines are compelled to pay 2 cents for transfers while passengers paying the regular 5-cent fare obtain free transfers to any line in the city.

The loss will reach over $100,000 a year because of the inability of the company to pay running expenses, and to liquidate accumulated debts under the 3-cent fare, which rate has been effective on all lines in the city since April 29.

Central Arcade in Schoenectady for Clue Brothers' Machine Shops Destroyed by Flames.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SCHOENECTADY (N. Y.) Feb. 1.—The Central Arcade, consisting of twenty stories on the ground floor and offices, society rooms and printing plant above, was destroyed by fire today. The building was located between the Erie Canal and the Erie Canal tracks and the Erie Canal and extended from Union to Liberty streets.

The loss will reach over $100,000 a year because of the inability of the company to pay running expenses, and to liquidate accumulated debts under the 3-cent fare, which rate has been effective on all lines in the city since April 29.

The convention in session at Cape Town to form a plan for the union of the British Empire, which is to be held for a week over the question of which city shall be the capital. A compromise is now being discussed whereby Cape Town shall be the seat of the Parliament, Pretoria the administrative capital and Bloemfontein the headquarters of the judiciary.

Window Shades that are Guaranteed

—guaranteed to be made of the very best cloth, to be mounted on genuine Hartshorn rollers, to be full length and width (to come at least nine inches below the sill and to lap the casing in a proper manner)—those are some of the things that are guaranteed when you buy Barker Bros.' genuine hand-made Oil Opaque Window Shades;

—then, too, we guarantee to put them up in a first-class manner by experienced shade-men, and to use the best of fixtures, pressed steel brackets, fastened with screws—not nails;

—and we guarantee every window shade put up by us to give complete satisfaction and good service;

—some firms, in order to secure shade work on the strength of a low "bid" or estimate, use cheap cloth in which "pinholes" and cracks soon appear; also poor rollers with inferior springs; in making use the shortest possible measurements in length and width, and put them up in the cheapest possible manner; you cannot afford to take chances;

DR. HUDSON SHOOT MARVELOUS STRINGS.

The wonderful accuracy of the army rifle, the New Springfield, was thoroughly demonstrated at Southern California.

Dr. W. G. Hudson of New York, winner of scores of off-hand matches in the last ten years, using a New Springfield rifle belonging to E. C. Crossman of the Los Angeles Rifle and Revolver Club, made two clean scores of 211 and 208 on the German ring target.

At the same time two of the expert devotees of the Schutzenoff game, with their expert target rifles, delicate and finely-adjusted sights, and hair triggers, scored 194 and 191, respectively.

Dr. Hudson's scores on the ordinary "A" target used in the army, would have been 49 for each string out of possible 50. Hudson was shooting a strange rifle which he had never seen before, was out of practice and had been traveling for two weeks, none of which he had spent in the range.

After his first two scores, Hudson scored several "23s" on the target, one 24 and one 25, using the same rifle, and D. W. King, Jr., the holder of the world's record for 100 shots on the standard American target at 300 yards, scored 100 using the military rifle. A 24 means the shot strikes within about two inches of the exact center and a 25 within three inches; the 23 being a two-inch circle.

Dr. Hudson's 211 score means that his ten shots averaged more than 21 for each shot, or that his whole score averaged less than five inches from the center at 300 yards. His 208 score was practically the same.

Joe Sigale, the best shot of the Schutzen men in this end of the State, scored 211 for his best run, using his splendid and easily target rifle, loaded from the muzzle and using every device known to the off-hand shooter to help in making perfect scores.

His score in other words, averaged twenty-two per shot or his whole ten shots averaged within four inches of the center. Dr. Hudson, shooting one of the heavy Schutzen runs, scored 223, practically at the same as Sigale's score, and his ten shots with this special target rifle, averaged but one inch from the center.

Considering the difference in the sights, the German rifles being equipped with the finest sighting devices known, while the Springfield has the ordinary course military type of sight, there would appear to be but little to choose in accuracy between Uncle Sam's new rifle and the finest Schutzen rifle.

It is the first time that such shooting has been seen in this end of the State, with an ordinary military rifle. It is possible to get a better line on the words, both types of rifles will shoot more accurately than it is possible to hold them until the finish.

Wilson, a freshman, ran an excellent race in the mile, taking the lead at the beginning and keeping it throughout. At the end of the first lap he was several feet ahead of his competitors, who were still pretty well bunched, and kept drawing still further ahead until the finish.

Good time was made by Robertson in the 400-yard dash. He finished several yards in the lead of Dawson, who was second, and covered the distance in 51.4 seconds.

Lugo lost the 250-yard low hurdles by tripping over the last hurdle. He was well in advance of Dawson, the winner of the race, but by the time he got disentangled from the barrier, both Dawson and Jack Harrington had passed him.

The 300-yard dash was finished with Robertson, Geisler and Gadwood all close. The three ran a hard race and, considering the fact that it is early in the season, they made creditable time.

Robertson crossed the line first, his time being 24.4 seconds. He was followed by Geisler in second place, his time being 24.8 seconds.

The race comparatively was the slowest event of the afternoon and 11m. 2s. were consumed by Hayes in making the distance, and he was so tired that he could hardly finish.

WOMAN DRIVER AT MADRI GRAS.

MRS. CUNEO TO HANDLE BIG CAR AT NEW ORLEANS.

Fearless Chauffeurs Will Pilot Race Over Fast Course in Contest With Men Who Have Taken Premier Honors on Many Tracks—May Prove First of Sex to Win Battle.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Joan Newton Cunéo, sometimes called "the premier woman driver of the world," has agreed to drive the Knox "Giant" in the Mardi Gras races at New Orleans February 28, 29 and 30.

There has been much rivalry among the various auto owners who wanted to induce Mrs. Cunéo to drive their car.

Already Mrs. Cunéo has made a name for herself as a driver. She is fearless, but careful, and handles her machine in a contest like a veteran, taking every advantage possible.

There has never been a complaint lodged against the woman's driving, and she has been pitted against skilled drivers and has usually taken first honors.

Mrs. Cunéo is in no way a professional, but is, rather, a lover of the automobile. Racing is not a new thing for her, for aside from victories in former years, she was one of the winners in the woman's race from New York to Philadelphia and return, only a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Cunéo's experience as a successful driver in various Glidden tours and other endurance runs and in a number of short-distance races, makes her formidable competitor for the prize which will be offered by the new Race Committee.

She has driven at various times different makes of cars, but never until now has she had a car which was sufficiently fast and powerful to bring out her skill and nerve.

The Knox "Giant" is the fifty-horsepower car which was entered in the last Vanderbilt cup race, which was won by George Robertson in a Locomobile.

GOLF AT CORONADO. Sturges Makes Best Score in Qualifying Championship Contest—Annals of Golf.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN DIEGO, Feb. 1.—The annual contest for the Coronado golf championship began today on the links of the Coronado Country Club, with the qualifying 18-hole medal play. Thirty-six players entered, including eleven from the Coronado club.

Besides the chief event of the day, there was a match between eleven players each from the Annandale and the Coronado clubs.

The Coronado club team won by 17 to 4. In the qualifying championship contest the best score was made by George Sturges of Coronado, who tested the 18 holes in 77, beating A. B. Daniels by 4 strokes.

WOMAN DRIVER AT MADRI GRAS.

MRS. CUNEO TO HANDLE BIG CAR AT NEW ORLEANS.

Fearless Chauffeurs Will Pilot Race Over Fast Course in Contest With Men Who Have Taken Premier Honors on Many Tracks—May Prove First of Sex to Win Battle.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Joan Newton Cunéo, sometimes called "the premier woman driver of the world," has agreed to drive the Knox "Giant" in the Mardi Gras races at New Orleans February 28, 29 and 30.

There has been much rivalry among the various auto owners who wanted to induce Mrs. Cunéo to drive their car.

Already Mrs. Cunéo has made a name for herself as a driver. She is fearless, but careful, and handles her machine in a contest like a veteran, taking every advantage possible.

There has never been a complaint lodged against the woman's driving, and she has been pitted against skilled drivers and has usually taken first honors.

Mrs. Cunéo is in no way a professional, but is, rather, a lover of the automobile. Racing is not a new thing for her, for aside from victories in former years, she was one of the winners in the woman's race from New York to Philadelphia and return, only a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Cunéo's experience as a successful driver in various Glidden tours and other endurance runs and in a number of short-distance races, makes her formidable competitor for the prize which will be offered by the new Race Committee.

She has driven at various times different makes of cars, but never until now has she had a car which was sufficiently fast and powerful to bring out her skill and nerve.

The Knox "Giant" is the fifty-horsepower car which was entered in the last Vanderbilt cup race, which was won by George Robertson in a Locomobile.

GOLF AT CORONADO. Sturges Makes Best Score in Qualifying Championship Contest—Annals of Golf.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN DIEGO, Feb. 1.—The annual contest for the Coronado golf championship began today on the links of the Coronado Country Club, with the qualifying 18-hole medal play. Thirty-six players entered, including eleven from the Coronado club.

Besides the chief event of the day, there was a match between eleven players each from the Annandale and the Coronado clubs.

The Coronado club team won by 17 to 4. In the qualifying championship contest the best score was made by George Sturges of Coronado, who tested the 18 holes in 77, beating A. B. Daniels by 4 strokes.

WISE TALKS

By the "Office Boy"

He was very fond of the girl, so he said to her one evening: "Hiss your father ever given you any idea what he thinks of me?" "No, I really don't believe father thinks of you at all. He has so many important things to fill his mind." I often feel like going up to our salesman and saying, "Are you a better salesman today than yesterday? A man has to go one way or the other—forward or backward, and I don't want any of our men to go back. If you are a salesman, ask yourself these four questions. They will keep you busy for awhile. "How can I be a better salesman? How can I be more valuable to my employer? How can I make more money for myself? Do I want to be a salesman all my life?" The Old Man, instead of wasting a lot of time and money looking for and experimenting with so-called "expert" salesmen, who get around over the country almost as fast as a traveling man, concluded some time ago he had better begin contributing to home missions by educating his own man, and I heard him say the other day that it is paying larger dividends today than any investment he ever made. Did you ever find more abiding, attentive, high class salesmen anywhere than those who wait upon you in our stores? I don't believe you ever did. A fellow has a chance if he works in a Silverwood Store. Ability, diligence and loyalty all go to swell the pay envelope. Then the Old Man opens a new store every so often, and the Manager is selected from among the fellows who have made good. When it comes to business, he's from Missouri, and they've got to "show him." I believe if you're not one of our customers, it would be a revelation to you to talk to some of our salesmen. We sell your kind of goods, and we'd like awfully well to have your patronage. Can't we? Give us a chance to make good our claims. Either store.

EARLY-DAY BLUECOAT RETIRES WITH HONOR.

Acting Sergeant George W. Woodward retired yesterday after twenty years' faithful service on the police force. Things were different here in his earlier days, as the reminiscence sketches show.

ACTING SERGEANT GEORGE W. WOODWARD of the East Side station was honorably retired yesterday, after twenty years of faithful service as a policeman. Woodward joined the force when Los Angeles was a small town, and saw the department grow from a mere handful of men to a metropolitan body. His adventures in the early days marked him a hero. Yesterday Mayor Harper presented to the officer a gold star, the gift of the members of the police force, and expressed his appreciation of the sergeant's able fulfillment of his duties. Woodward never had a disagreement with his superiors during his entire service, and attributes this to the fact that he kept out of politics. He is now 67 years old, in perfect health and ready to spend the remainder of his life in peace and happiness. It is a treat to hear him tell of the city's early days. There was a chief, a captain, three sergeants and a handful of rickety, dare-devil riders, who patrolled the outskirts of the town and rounded up desperate criminals. A man had to be quick with a gun in those times. Woodward served as a mounted officer for twelve years. There was no patrol wagon, and when an arrest was made and the prisoner unable to walk, the officer hung him over the front of his saddle or impressed a wheelbarrow into service. The liveliest sport at that time was cock fighting and where the Hotel Alexandria now stands, the Spaniards used to gather and pit their birds. The men usually quarreled and the police were needed to quiet them. Street cars were never held up then. The only street car in the city was drawn by a pair of wicked mules and their heels would have been worse than a bullet for a highwayman. Woodward has earned his rest. He made many remarkable captures and once overpowered one of the most desperate footpads that ever infested the town and took his gun away from him. In the big railroad strike the officer quelled disturbances single-handed.

GAIN TITLE TO BALL PLAYERS.

NATIONAL COMMISSION ORDERS CLASSIFICATION.

List Must Be Verified at Once and Names Stricken from Reservation of Minor League Roster—E. J. Greco and Other Coast Stars Included in Number.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) CINCINNATI, Feb. 1.—The National Baseball Commission issued today a list of players who appear as being reserved by the National Association clubs, but to whom major league clubs have gained title. The commission recommends that this list be verified immediately by the proper officers of the National Association clubs, and that the player whose title has passed to the major league club be at once stricken from the reservation list, a part of which follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Cincinnati: G. A. Smith, drafted, reserved by Oakland; Cal. George W. Ellis, purchased, reserved by Los Angeles.
AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Cleveland: W. R. Wright, purchased, reserved by Oakland; C. Graney, purchased, reserved by Portland; Thomas Rafferty, purchased, reserved by Portland; Chicago: W. M. Attkin, purchased, reserved by Pueblo; Harry Suttor, purchased, reserved by San Francisco; R. S. Zeider, purchased, reserved by San Francisco; S. S. Flanagan, purchased, reserved by Vancouver; Philadelphia: Heilmuller, drafted, reserved by Oakland.
St. Louis: Patterson, purchased, reserved by Pueblo; Smith, purchased, reserved by Pueblo; Crum, drafted, reserved by Winnipeg.
Boston: Thompson, drafted, reserved by Aberdeen; Frank Arclanes, purchased, reserved by San Francisco; Washington: William Gray, purchased, reserved by Los Angeles.

SAILORS BEAT MILITIA.
Team from Crew of Cruiser Albany Defeats San Diego Team With Good Score.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 1.—The crack shots of the crew of the cruiser Albany defeated a team of the Naval Militia on the latter's range in several contests for a silver loving cup yesterday. The cruiser team set a fast pace all through the shoot. In the 200-yard rifle event the Albany won by 25 points, scoring 179 to 154. The militiamen put up a better front in the 300-yard event, scoring 254, but not enough to overcome their opponents' 275. In the 500-yard event the Albany scored 349 and the militia 318, making the grand total of the rifle contests as follows: For the three events, of 100 for the Albany and 162 for the militiamen. Much closer results were obtained in the pistol events. Five men from each team took part, firing at 15, 25 and 50 yards. The Albany team winning all the events with the following results: Fifteen yards—Albany, 149; militia, 144; 25 yards—Albany, 128; militia, 121; 50 yards—Albany, 115; militia, 112.

Giants and Gardens.
The Los Angeles Giants and Gardens are scheduled to play a game of baseball at Joy Park next Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The battery for the Giants is to be McClain and Slater, and for the Gardens Oulla and Simms. Taylor is to referee.

GYPSUM CLAIM IS HELD VALID.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES CASE OF IMPORTANCE.

Judges Say It is a Valuable Mineral and Locators Can Hold by Assessment Work—Affects Coalings Titles. Likelihood of Associated Paying Dividends.

The California Supreme Court has upheld the gypsum locations in the suit of James Madison and R. R. Albrecht vs. the Octave Oil Company and T. A. O'Donnell, involving titles in Coalings district. The issue was decided by the plaintiffs January 1, 1909, under gypsum claims, and in February, 1904, relocated by the Octave and O'Donnell. Madison and Albrecht sought to quiet title and for an injunction against interference with their performance of assessment work. The court holds in substance that gypsum is a valuable mineral and that a valid claim can be based thereon; that there was enough of it to justify expending labor and time upon it; that it is not necessary that the mineral should have immediate market value, but only a prospective future value; that "when an adverse claimant takes possession and prevents the plaintiff from performing the annual assessment work, the plaintiff constitutes a forfeiture, but throws the land open to location by others, and in the absence of any other location the original locator is entitled to resume work, and to hold his claim, remains."

Associated's Condition.
The Associated will hold its annual meeting in San Francisco the last of this month. Whether or not there will be a dividend at that time, no one will say positively, but it can be said upon the highest authority that there will "probably" be a dividend during the present year and that it will be followed by others. No great advance in stock appears to be anticipated by insiders, even after the payment is made. The public has unquestionably lost much of its confidence from the fact that dividends started before and then ceased, as well as on account of the continual manipulation of the shares by underwriters on the market. The San Francisco disaster went far to check the Associated's prosperity. The company had accounts and contracts of over a million that were held up for a long time and in some cases lost, at that time. The stock quotations are absolutely worthless at an index to the value of the property at this time. Whether dividends are declared now or not, it is certain that the corporation is in better shape than ever before. It was stated yesterday by a man heavily interested in Associated and in close touch with the management, that a 6 per cent. basis is likely.

Another Mexican Gusher.
The Mexican Petroleum Company received word yesterday that another gusher has come in at Ebano and was flowing 1000 barrels a day.

Drill at Elsinore.
T. A. Cline, president of the Elsinore Oil and Gas Company, writes The Times that his company has contracted for a new combination rig to drill 2500 feet on its prospect oil lands at Elsinore. He says that it was well dug for water thirty-five feet by James Bledsoe, oil appeared in gubholes on the water's surface. Some excitement is caused in the neighborhood by this.

In North Midway.
The Bear Creek, a company formerly of Longport, has acquired 14-32-22 Midway, adjoining the Brookshire's location on 24. Three rigs are being erected and No. 1 will spud about the 15th inst. Among the share owners are William Packard, Judge W. S. Day, Charles Hunt, Jack Arkley, Roscoe Stephens, J. Hurdley and F. Stephenson, all of Santa Barbara and Longport. The Majestic has just shipped a rig from Santa Maria to be put on section 22 at Midway. A Johnston negotiated the Bear Creek deal.

Geological Survey.
The U. S. Geological Survey has completed a topographic map from Coalings to Sunset to be issued in two sections: the first from Coalings to Dudley, and the second from Dudley to Sunset. A few photolithographic advance sheets of both have been distributed to postoffice and offices of the principal oil companies for public consultation. Similar work has been done around San Francisco Bay and more is being done between there and Coalings.

Another bulletin on the Fresno and Kings county district, referred to as Coalings, will be ready later and will give a more extended geological account of the region with maps, photographs and plates of characteristic fossils and a table of over fifty analyses of oils. A preliminary bulletin will be ready in the spring on the Devil's Den, Bitterwater, Temblor, McKittick, Midway, Sunset and Carrizo districts by Arnold & Johnson.

TRUNK'S PRESCRIPTION RHEUMATISM

Cannot possibly exist in any form if you will take Trunk's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout and use the Adepta Liniment, and use them strictly according to the directions.

Inflammatory, Sciatic, Muscular, Lumbago, Gout or any other form of Rheumatism. It is positively absurd, ridiculous and preposterous—it is really a pity and a shame to talk about Rheumatism, much less to suffer with it, when you can get Trunk's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout for $1.50.

This prescription does not ruin the Stomach and it does not depress the Heart. It does not contain any Salicylate of Soda, Salicylic Acid, Oil of Wintergreen, Opium, Morphine or Bromides in any form. It cannot harm you, but it will remove Rheumatism in any and all forms.

Your Home For Now And For the Future

Look at the pictures in this advertisement. They tell a story which will interest every city dweller. The lower picture shows five houses cramped close together on an acre of city land. The upper picture shows one house on an acre of Cudahy Ranch land. You who are going to build a home, which shall it be?—the 50-foot city lot with its narrow confines, its dust, dirt and noise; or the Cudahy Ranch Acre with the purest of air and water, plenty of breathing room and the choicest of fruits, vegetables, eggs and poultry grown on your own place. Which shall it be?

The sensible choice is the Cudahy Ranch Acre, because it costs less than the city lot and is as easy of access. Remember this: You are going to build a home for now and for the future—therefore let it be a home you will be proud of—a real home from every standpoint—your ideal will be realized on the Cudahy Ranch.

Cudahy Ranch

Subdivision No. 2 Just Opened

 Quarter Cash, Balance Long Time

Won't you visit the Cudahy Ranch today and see if you would not like to own a home place there? Acreage in Tract No. 2, offered for the first time a week ago, is selling at $500. upwards. In Tract No. 1 there are some good locations at $400 upwards. The Whittier Electric Car, from Sixth and Main, will take you to the Cudahy Ranch in less than twenty-five minutes. Salesmen with vehicles await you at the ranch. The time is now.

153 USED PIANOS

The Most Distinguished Collection Ever Presented in Our February Clearance

Every one of these pianos comes to us from some one who valued it highly; but, having prospered, purchased from us another instrument—a Steinway grand or a player piano. This brings us a high class of pianos, which we can sell at low prices because of the convenience of removal of the old piano, and the fairness of the prices of our new instruments. These changes come in such numbers that we cannot house the pianos without inconvenience and it is our purpose to clear them out at a mere fraction of their real worth.

$4, $5, $6 OR MORE Per Month

This is the finest collection of pianos ever offered in an under-price sale. Included are fine Steinways, Chickering, Scherer, Krnisch & Bach and many other famous makes. Our factory experts overhaul every instrument in the most thorough manner, making many of them as good as new before they go into the sale, and finishing every case in such perfect manner that the purchaser's friends would never suspect that the piano was not new.

HUNDRED AND FIFTY CATTLE IN A HEAP.

Pico Bridge Across San Gabriel on Whittier Road Collapses, and Many Poor Beasts Are Injured—Driver and Horse in Ugly Mess.

ONE of the most remarkable accidents every known in this section of the State occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon when 150 head of cattle and Earl Radney, a young ranchman from Downey, went down in a bloody heap by the collapse of the Pico bridge over the San Gabriel River on the Whittier road. Radney had a wonderful escape from being crushed to death by the heavy timbers, three of the cattle were killed, and forty-five injured. The bridge is so damaged that a new one will have to be built, and in the meantime teams traveling by that thoroughfare will have to ford the stream, a dangerous undertaking at this season of the year.

The cattle were the property of C. F. Radney and Mr. Peterson, proprietors of the Holmes Glendale Dairy Company, No. 735 Santa Fe avenue, this city. Early yesterday morning C. F. Radney notified his son, Earl, to move the cattle from their ranch at Downey to a pasture northwest of Whittier.

Young Radney started with the herd, assisted by two cowboys. All went well until they reached the Pico bridge. Here the cattle became excited, and it required considerable work to get them started across. When the head of the herd reached the center of the east span they bunched, and a moment later the entire structure gave way with a crash.

MAN AND HORSE FALL. Radney was on the bridge in the midst of the herd, and went down with it. The other men were behind and escaped the fall. By some strange freak the cattle that were not standing on the span that collapsed, immediately ran to the gap and plunged headlong into the writhing mass of cows already in the river bed, twenty feet below.

The bridge was of the true type, and the great timbers and bolts forming the span collapsed on top of the cattle that were beneath, and those that plunged in afterward landed on top of the splintered beams. One cow was impaled on a huge silver, driving Radney, his horse, and several cattle with blood. This animal was shot as soon as possible to end its suffering.

Radney crawled out of the mass over the heads of the struggling cattle and assisted by the cowboys and farmers who were attracted from near-by fields, began to release the cows. The timbers and bolts of the bridge formed a sort of fence on both sides and it took an hour and a half to extricate the animals. About a third of the herd were injured, and they made a sorry spectacle as they limped along to the pasture.

SAYS TIMBERS ROTTEN.

Radney notified his father immediately after the accident, and the latter sent Nick Harris, his agent, to the scene to investigate, with the purpose of fixing the blame for the loss. Harris returned last night and stated that the accident was caused by weakened timbers in the bridge span.

"The Pico bridge was built in 1892 and has weathered several big floods," said Harris. "The main timbers of the bridge are ten inches square, but they have become badly rotted. The heavy rains of last week helped to weaken the span and the extra weight of the cattle proved enough to bring it down. The span which collapsed was for the most part over sandy bottom, as the stream ran under the west span."

LAND MYSTERY.

WILL SEEK PARADISE IN MIDNIGHT TRAIN.

"PARADISE Cooperative Colony," What a fine, seductive name it is looked in the advertisements. Nearly two-score families prepared to become cooperative colonists in Paradise on "50,000 acres of government land in Southern California, with plenty of water." And only $100 to be located on 160 acres of this fine land in Paradise.

But there has been a mystery in connection with Paradise and the land. Who was back of the scheme? This was a question most of the prospective dwellers in Paradise increased in number. Last Saturday a call was issued to the co-operators to meet in the Chamber of Commerce building, last evening.

"To permit you to learn about the Paradise Cooperative Colony, which plans to locate 300 settlers on 50,000 acres of free government land in Southern California."

"The only cost," continued Ernest R. Smith, writer of the letter, who quoted himself the secretary, "will be $100 for expenses, which can be deposited in any bank with written instructions that said money is not to be paid over until you have seen the land and after you have filed your location in the Land Office."

In conclusion, Mr. Smith stated that at this meeting arrangements would be made for a grand excursion to see the land. A large typewritten receipt for the $100 was also distributed to each of the would-be dwellers in Paradise.

All the Paradise cooperative people gathered in the hall last evening, eager to see their benefactor and to hear of the prospects for carrying out a home for themselves in Paradise.

A handsome, well-dressed, portly and energetic-looking man, with a cast-iron smile, suddenly burst into view. Some of the people present did not know him, but the majority he is a familiar figure.

It was William H. Carlson, the president of the Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles, promoter of the Redondo Villa tract, etc., etc., wasted no time in telling about Paradise. Carlson informed the audience that

RED CROSS SOCIETY HERE.

To Be Organized in Week—Movement Indorsed by Prominent Men and Women.

Los Angeles will soon have a branch of the Red Cross Society. The call for the organization will be issued in a week by the Elbell Club, and it will be sponsored by prominent men and women in every walk of life.

The initial steps have already been taken, by permission of the International Red Cross Society, of which President-elect Taft is the head. At present the work in the United States is chiefly the stamping out of the great white plague, Dr. George H. Kross, who has taken a leading part in the war against tuberculosis, is one of the leaders in the local movement.

MORE SCHOOL EXPENSES.

High School Students May Have to Buy New German Grammars, Cider and Cakes.

The Course of Study Committee of the Board of Education has recommended the adoption of a less intricate elementary German text-book and the favorable action of the board at the next meeting will throw out all elementary German readers at present in use in the Los Angeles High School district.

According to the report presented by the committee, which consists of F. W. Steadon, J. M. Quinn and R. S. Page, Becker's elements of German, the book at present used, is considered too difficult and complex for class room reading. It has been in use

THE "RECOIL."

"OUR SET" HAS NO CANDIDATE.

Stephens Is Nominated But Does Not Accept.

He Asks for Time to Think the Matter Over.

Another Meeting Soon to Be Held by Leaguers.

The recall movement is still without a candidate against Mayor Harper.

William D. Stephens, who was asked to become the nominee of the recallers at a meeting at Blanchard Hall yesterday afternoon, declined to accept without further deliberation. The illness of his wife, more serious now than for months, was Mr. Stephens' reason; and when he had finished speaking, there were few who believed that deliberation will turn his mind to acceptance.

LEE SAYS ISN'T LEE.

Man Who Disappeared from Riverside Turns Up Here With a Very Short Memory.

Florin G. Lee, who disappeared from his home in Riverside on December 26, following a mental breakdown, was located yesterday afternoon in this city, and is being held at Central Police Station until relatives or authorities arrive to return him to his home.

Lee, who is 25 years of age, still gives evidence of his mental aberration by insisting that he is not Lee, but Harry Stevens. He denies also that he has ever resided in Riverside.

However, he can remember nothing prior to New Year's day, when he says he arrived in Los Angeles over the Salt Lake Route. And even since that time his mind is clear. Occasionally he talks of Iowa and Butte, Mont., as being identified with his past. His identity, however, has been established by acquaintances who knew him in Riverside.

One of these met the young man on Broadway yesterday afternoon, but when he spoke to him he gave no sign of recognition. Having knowledge that Lee was missing from the home the woman details of Lee until she could summon police detectives and give the young man into custody. Lee for three weeks has been employed at the Hotel Trenton, No. 47 South Olive street, without a day's absence. He went under the name of Harry Stevens.

Lee's mental breakdown is attributed to overwork. By day he worked in a dry goods store, with which he has been connected for nine years, and at night he spent many hours in the study of electrical engineering.

CHERRING. STATE FREIGHT RATES LOWEST.

CALIFORNIA SUFFERS LITTLE BY RECENT INCREASE.

So Says Southern Pacific's Assistant Traffic Director—Very Optimistic as to Future and Anticipates Healthy But Gradual Restoration of Great Prosperity—Primes City.

California suffers less than any part of the United States from the recent freight rate increase, and owing to water competition, enjoys today lower rates than any other State, according to E. O. McCormick, assistant traffic director of the Southern Pacific at Chicago, who is at the Alexandria. He states that the rates put into force by the transcontinental east and westbound tariffs of January 1 are equitable and will not be modified in the near future, as "for many years the California rates had been too low."

"No change," he continued, "were ever made, or ever will be, without a careful consideration of the interests of the users of transportation and of the shippers, which are identical. The shippers are the best friends the railroads have, and they are not going to make a rate which will prove burdensome, or work any material damage. The claim that the new rates will yield $10,000,000 annually to the railroads is untrue. The correct figure would be nearer $2,500,000."

Mr. McCormick is optimistic as to the future. "Business men all over the country," he asserted, "look for a marked improvement over the past year. Naturally, the improvement will be slow if it is to be permanent. Confidence is fully restored, but there will be no boom, no sudden soaring of prices, or abrupt return to great prosperity."

"The Southern Pacific is not permitting its track equipment or service to deteriorate in the slightest, but is maintaining the usual high standard. One-third of all the block signals in use in the United States are on the lines of the Southern and Union Pacific railroads."

Mr. McCormick, in speaking of the city, said: "Los Angeles shows a wonderful improvement since I was here two years ago, and it is going to be one of the best cities in the world."

ARBOR DAY MARCH SEVENTH. Trees May Be Planted on Streets, Instead of in Parks and School Grounds.

March 7 has been selected as the date for Arbor Day and it is possible that this may become the permanent time for celebrating it in Southern California, as it is the birthday anniversary of the plant wizard, Luther Burbank.

Yesterday, at the meeting of the Civic Association, the following committee was appointed to arrange for the tree planting: J. A. Haskett, chairman; Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant, Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, Mrs. Chalmers Smith, Rev. E. J. Harper, Dr. Chase, Dr. W. A. Lamb, F. W. Blanchard, W. M. Humphreys and J. M. Quinn.

Charter Amendment No. 23, to be voted on today, has been indorsed by the association. This allows the Council to plant trees along the city thoroughfares, and to clean vacant lots at the expense of the owners.

The plan on Arbor Day is to plant trees along the streets, instead of in parks and school grounds, as has been the custom. This suggestion was made by City Forester Harper.

HEART TOUCHED, PURSE, TOO. Dairyman Feeds and Shelters Tramp, and Then the Ingrate Steals His Money.

Pierre A. Miller, a young dairyman living at Sixteenth street and Vermont avenue, gambled at the "Good Samaritan" game Sunday night and thereby lost $20 to a low-lived ingrate.

A tramp, weary and hungry, reached the Miller home shortly after dark. He begged a crust of bread. Miller's heart was touched. He fed the man and gave him a nice, warm bed. Early yesterday morning the stranger assisted the hired man to unload the milk wagon. Miller had his money concealed beneath the seat of the wagon for fear of burglars. During the unloading process the hired man was called to the house for a moment. When he returned the stranger and the money had disappeared.

The police are looking for both.

Hundred and Fifty Cattle Plunging Through Collapsing Bridge

Sketch from a description of the ugly accident yesterday afternoon on the Whittier road, when the truss over the San Gabriel River gave way.

about eighteen months. In its place is recommended Ball's German Grammar, published by the D. C. Heath Company. Arrangements have been made by the committee recommending the change by which the publishers of the proposed substitute book will allow local dealers dollar for dollar in exchange for Becker's work, and will allow the students 40 cents on their copies, although they are published by another concern.

The Gardens High School, with an eye toward horticultural possibilities, has asked the board for thirty-six varieties of cactus, also poinsettia, eucaalyptus and apple seeds. Among other items in the supply clerk's recommendation they ask for six bottles of elder and six of grape juice.

WANTED—MAYOR.

WANTED.—Candidate for Mayor of Los Angeles to run against Harper on the Recoil ticket.

Must be sound and kind, 14 hands high, more or less, broken to harness and well-bitted—one trained to take orders and to obey the whip.

Must be free from ringbone, spavin and heaves and a good runner—a devil of a runner. Trotters and rackers not accepted. Gait not fast enough.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT. Must be docile, quick to mind the rein and able to stand the goad without bucking. Wanted only for a short time. Liable to be recalled any minute—sometimes twice a minute.

Will be ridden by E. T. E., likewise C. D. W. and M. L., the well-known political jockeys. All hard riders. Sore-backed candidates or those tender on the bit need not apply.

Must be well shod, that is to say, well heeled.

One right off the bluegrass range would do, if properly branded. Is expected to shy at the cars—especially at cars owned by a corporation.

Terms: CASH. LOTS OF CASH. No credit—no credit to either the candidate or the purchasers. No credit to anybody connected with the deal.

APPLY TO E. T. E., Express office, or to T. E. G., Herald office, or to the Prominent Citizens' Company (Limited). Show your invitation.

IF I WERE THE MAYOR OF LOS ANGELES.

IX.
Members of "Our Set" Get Together and Discuss the Tuxedo Coat Form of Government.

The invitation to select portion of the Municipal League held an important meeting yesterday for the purpose of regulating the errors of society, the substitution of the Tuxedo coat form of government for our present antiquated system, and other minor matters including the selection of a Mayor.

The meeting was called to order by Secretary Billboard, who also called the roll. Each member responded to the calling of his name by throwing a large bouquet at himself.

When the bouquets had been cleared away, the following members were found to be present:

Messrs. Billboard, Listener, Flythe-coop, A. Bias Churl, Judge Nit, Mr.

Handy, and a few other prominent crusaders, including the well-known anti-vice editor, Tommy Bullvine, and the staid editor, Mr. Gammon.

The president stated, in opening the meeting, that he had given the most prominent members together by special invitation in order to witness Mr.

Billboard in the act of saving Los Angeles.

He admitted that the majority of the members of the league had not been invited to participate. He said he feared that some of the members not invited might be offended at the discovery that they were not the real thing in prominence, but "it is inevitable," he said.

Mr. Billboard, sitting in a Tuxedothen addressed the league, although the attention of the audience was divided between his remarks and another important matter. Each member present had an envelope or bit of paper and was composing a speech of his own in the hope that he might be called on to help Mr. Billboard save the city.

Mr. Billboard's remarks were characterized by great dignity.

He said the Mayor had betrayed the sacred trust imposed in him in two special instances:

First, he had given Los Angeles a "wide-open town," as had been the understanding of every one when he was a candidate for the office.

Second, he had recently become so inordinate that he would no longer obey the dictates of the Municipal League or even of the City Club.

"This," said Mr. Billboard, "is the crowning outrage."

Mr. Billboard said that the league should now proceed to the nomination of a Mayor to take the place of Harmer.

Dr. Wootton, who had slipped into the room, eagerly butted in with the remark that a Mayor had already been nominated at the meeting held at Blanchard Hall.

"I observe," said Mr. Billboard, quaintly turning to see who had interrupted, "I observe that a certain person, whom I will not name, is present at our meeting without invitation."

"My colleagues who are here, under invitation, will realize the true situation."

"Anyhow Mr. Stephens is not just what we want. We want some one to handle the rough stuff, and be the same plate. We are here to select some person who will look like a stomach, but who will allow us to run the engines."

Mr. Billboard, having resumed his seat, a loud chorus of voices cried:

"Mister Chairman," and nearly all the members sprang to their feet, demanding the floor.

Mr. Listener turned, however, and stared at the others in a manner so fierce that they all slunk into their seats.

Mr. Listener remarked sourly that he recall had been agreed upon long since, and that there was no use making a lot of speeches about it. He said the only thing to do was to proceed to ballot for the boss to run the man that runs the Mayor's office when Harmer has gone. Mr. Listener moved that the selection be made after the manner of the direct primaries, without nomination.

Ballots were then passed, and the following tellers and judges appointed:

Tellers—Mr. Billboard

Judges—Mr. Billboard

The ballots having been duly collected, the official count showed the following result, to the great amazement of all:

For Mayor's boss:

Billboard, one vote.

Churl, one vote.

Judge Nit, one vote.

Handy, one vote.

Bullvine, one vote.

Gammon, one vote.

Flythe, one vote.

A ballot was cast for Dr. Wootton, but the doctor was informed that, not holding an invitation, he would not be allowed to vote. Taken, with no change in the result.

Mr. Billboard then got up peevishly and addressed the house. He said he didn't see any use of having a Mayor, anyhow. He would only be a bother to the Municipal League.

"Ann-m-m-m-m," said a legal vote giving to his feet.

"Although," he said, "I agree with the principles announced, by my young friend, I regret to say that they are not in accordance with the theory of the Republican form of government as recited in these able discus-

In the cases of Lustig vs. Mustig;

Varney vs. Harney; Black vs. Hock;

"Shush for the Republican form of government," said Mr. Listener angrily.

"Who said anything about a Republican form of government? What want is a bunch of elections—call it any kind of government you like."

"My paper always makes money whenever there is an election," observed Mr. Churl, reflectively.

"Me, too," echoed Mr. Gammon. "At least, it never does."

"The trouble with an elective form of government is that we can only get one vote apiece," said Flythe, coolly.

"We can easily hallooing here all right. What we really need is a government by clubs. The President advocates government by the big stick.

Why shouldn't we have government by clubs? The Municipal League and the City Club could take one day each to govern the city. This would give every one a fine chance to make speeches. We could have a standing committee on issuing invitations. We would have special relief elections for the purpose of removing any one from the invitation list who voted wrong."

"You all give me a pain," said Mr.

Billboard. "What we should really have is something classy and natly and distinctive. I am in favor of the Tuxedo coat form of government. As I pointed out in my letter to the Times, we should have our supreme authority vested in a House Committee, and have everything club-like."

[Great applause.]

THE RECALL'S "AFTERNOON TEA."

Mr. Willard's invited guests held their tea party yesterday afternoon and nominated for Mayor, to run against Harper (in case the recall petition is completed), Mr. W. D. Stephens—as was expected. The programme went along without a miss till it came Mr. Stephens's turn to play. Mr. Stephens left the recallers in the air. He declined to accept the doubtful honor offered; declared that he must have time to deliberate; if forced to answer then he would have to say "No."

We think Mr. Stephens has done quite the right thing in carefully weighing his duty to his fellow citizens, his duty to his long-time associates, and his duty to himself and his own at this juncture. The Times would not seek to influence his decision; it has no right to; but it can hardly conceive of his finally determining to needlessly embroil himself and his fraternity in a nasty political fight over personal grievances—to alienate his friends and invite distress and grief to daily sit with him at his table. And when the election is over and his term as Mayor (if he be elected) is over, the scars and heart-aches will still be there.

The Times believes that the present temper of the public mind is such—so strong and general is the determination to defeat the "recall" game as a matter of principle—that Mr. Stephens would be beaten should he run for Mayor on the recallers' ticket, in spite of his qualifications and popularity. And even if he should be elected, the nature of the bitter quarrel in which he had engaged and which he must long keep up, would leave a bad taste in his mouth. It would be a case of "winner loses" for Mr. Stephens. Ask Mayor Harper! Ask Mrs. Harper! As to this unfair and tricky recall movement, the Times reiterates its conviction that it will fail miserably, that Justice will win in the end, no matter who may head the ticket of the knockers, whose anxiety at this hour is exceedingly significant.

WILL YOU VOTE TODAY?

All you fellow citizens whose domicile is inside of the municipal boundaries of Los Angeles and who have a legal right to vote in this city should exercise your privilege today.

A charter election is on for the purpose of adopting or rejecting numerous amendments to the organic municipal law. The Times has discussed this matter frequently for some weeks past, the main burden of our appeal being to all citizens to vote one way or the other. Most of the amendments are matters of detail, about which perhaps one citizen is quite as well qualified as another to decide. There are others involving matters of great importance, some of them radical changes in the methods of managing the affairs of the city.

Amendment No. 25 proposes the extension of the life period of franchises granted for the operating of street car lines in the city from twenty-one to thirty-five years. It seems to us when the life period of franchises for these purposes was cut from fifty to twenty-one years the measure was drastic and was sure to work hardship upon those in whose behalf it was claimed to be proposed. The railroad builders closed up their tool shops, discharged their builders and quit constructing street car lines in Los Angeles. The corporations, whom the aim was to "cinch," have not lost a handful of nickels in all the years this short period for franchises has been in existence. The owners of subdivisions not provided with street car lines have had their property tied up because of inaction. Inhabitants of the city, who live remote from street car lines as they existed when the terms was so radically shortened, have been at great inconvenience to get into the city and back to their homes. In some instances the law has had the effect of mulcting them in large sums of money, paid as subsidies to the street car builders to induce them to extend their lines. In many parts of the city property owners and other residents, not feeling able to offer these subsidies, are still suffering from the intolerable inconvenience of inaction.

The period to be added to the franchise term is quite reasonable. We can see that it is the duty of every voter who wishes to see fair play and who has the interest of his neighbors at heart to vote "Yes" upon charter amendment No. 25.

The street car companies are not favoring this amendment for the very good reason that they would like to continue to receive big subsidies from tract owners anxious for extensions.

Amendment No. 2 refers to the election of Councilmen. To this proposition we have devoted a great deal of attention, believing the proposed change in the way of electing Councilmen to be mischievous, sure to work great injustice upon certain classes of the people, and making it possible that a distinct class, and that not the one which deserves most attention to civic duties, shall be enabled to usurp the control of the whole city. The Times favors electing Councilmen at large, but it insists that there should be ward representation as well. Under the present system we have nine Councilmen, one nominated by the voters of each ward and elected by the same vote. As we have said, there are objections to this ward system. It places temptation in the way of Councilmen to form cliques and do mischievous "log rolling" for their own particular districts. The new method, which will be voted upon today would change this way of electing Councilmen and give us nine legislators for the city, nominated and elected by a general vote of all the electors of the city. The purpose of this, as expressed by its proponents, is to eliminate for us the possibility of getting into the Council a certain class of citizens, excluding all not up to the standard set by those who propose the change. We think to state this, as we have done in the past, in the terms of those who plead for it, is to condemn it. This is a democratic republic. The people, all the people, all classes of the people should have representation and the opportunity of taking part in the government of the city, as well as that of the State or that of the nation. We conceive this proposition of "Our Set" for class government to be un-democratic, un-republican, un-American, unfair, unjust, unproductive of any good and productive of much mischief.

If the voters in the First Ward, in the Second Ward, in the Ninth Ward and in at least half of the Third Ward do not get to the polls today and vote "No" on charter amendment No. 2 they will be jeopardizing their own interests, casting away opportunity of having constant voice in the municipal government, and will be putting in jeopardy the peaceful and proper conduct of municipal affairs for years to come.

What we think should be provided is a Council composed of one member from each of the wards, nominated and elected as at present, and an addition of six members, nominated at large and elected by the city at large. We advocate this idea because in our opinion it will do away with the defects of the present system, achieve all the good purposes claimed for the new Willard system, and eliminate all the mischievous and improper effects sure to follow from the adoption of the proposed amendment. By all means let all fair-minded citizens in all wards of the city vote "No" on amendment No. 2.

Amendment No. 4 proposes to expunge from our code of politics all party lines, party organizations and nominating conventions. We have said before, and reiterate, this amendment should be voted down. The main contention set up for this proposition is that it will put an end to boss rule and corruption in politics. The notion is an irreducible dream, proved unworkable by actual experience.

The thoughtful person is puzzled to see how two general elections instead of one are to destroy boss rule and put an end to corruption. The same influences that can carry the general election, exercised in the same way, will carry the primary election. That is logical reasoning, evident a priori to all who have learned how to think. To those who have not acquired the habit of clear conception, we point to the history of this direct primary for the last ten years in almost every election in which it has been tried, as furnishing facts which contradict every claim made for this proposed innovation in our politics. The past year is crowded with instances in which the direct primary has utterly failed to accomplish any of the good effects its advocates claim for it. It has failed in Wisconsin, failed in Oregon, failed in Missouri, failed in every place and instance that it has been tried. Side by side with this failure we have, under the old system, the election of an excellent Senator in Ohio, of an excellent Governor in New York, of the best equipped statesman in America, everything considered, to the United States Senate from the State of New York.

Under the old system we get men like Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts and many, many other United States Senators of the very highest type of manhood, of virtue and of statesmanship.

The new-fangled notion of nomination at direct primaries has not one man of distinction in mental, moral or political acquirements to its credit.

It is an injustice and a grievance done to many earnest citizens of deep-seated convictions to put into practice such a method of nominating and electing candidates to office. Only two names can appear on the final ballot at which the candidates are definitely elected. In our city, split nearly in two between the Democratic and the Republican party, these two organizations will, in every instance, succeed in nominating their candidate. All other political organizations, all earnest citizens struggling for the recognition of some movement according to their conceptions, will be totally shut out.

Let us go back, in conclusion, to Wisconsin. Under this fad a contest for United States Senator is closing there, which reveals, right under this system, one of the most colossal campaigns of fraud ever known in that or any other State. The election was carried by the very man the fad was intended to defeat, a man charged with being a machine politician, a boss and an alleged corruptionist. He now stands accused of the expenditure of over $100,000, used corruptly in spite of this system, which was to clear our political atmosphere of all clouds forever. The advocates of this fad are charged with having spent $30,000 each in an attempt to corrupt the electors of the State of Wisconsin, right under cover of this purity proposition.

In the face of experience we are convinced that it will be better for the cause of good government and clean politics in the city of Los Angeles to vote down this proposed amendment.

Amendment No. 1 vote "No."

IRON OUTPUT.

For the year 1897, the first of the McKinley administration, the output of pig iron in the United States was 9,852,680 tons. This increased yearly until 1902 by about 2,000,000. For 1903 the increase was small. For 1904 the increase went back to an increase of 2,000,000. Then came a jump of 6,000,000 in 1905. For the next two years the increase was not rapid. The twenty-four months showing less than 5,000,000. The year 1907 made a new record for the country, with 25,292,335 tons.

Here is a barometer, speaking in parables, showing the great pace at which business generally was going all these ten years.

But in 1908 the production of pig iron fell to 15,486,000, or a falling off of two-fifths from the previous year, with its highest record.

And there is the barometrical index of the business depression of last year. We must go back to 1901 for a year in which we produced as small an amount of pig iron.

RAIN, RAILROADS, CROPS.

The storm of the last ten days hit the railroads hard. The Southern Pacific estimated its losses at $5,000,000.

That looks serious, but think of the crops these rains will bring all over the State. A dry year would hit the railroads much more disastrously than the storm. The loss of business would amount to more than the loss of a few bridges.

The railroad men are aware of this. When one of them is offered compassion for the damage done, he rubs his hands, smiles, and replies, "Look ahead to July and August and figure the big crops we shall get to haul, and the merchandise that will come back over our lines, paid for by the crops."

A New York minister declares that a full stomach is a foe to genius, which is the same as saying that genius is nothing but a grouch.

YEAR STARTS WELL.

The building in the city during the month of January cost $646,007. Not a large amount, as things have been going, but not a discouraging record.

For January, last year, the cost of new building was $469,104. The increase for this year is $176,903. The increase is a third. If the year keeps up that record all through, the money put into new building will be about $1,000,000 a month.

Reports out of architects' offices indicate that the new work done by the end of the year will aggregate even more than that in cost.

Bay. The sign is favorable, especially to 3 p.m. A good day for baking, hiring males and doing anything connected with fish.

In dealings between the sexes, especially if they relate to affairs of the heart, there is danger of conflict and quarrel from obscure and vague causes. Mutual forbearance will be necessary during these twenty-four hours in all social intercourse.

Be extremely cautious about undertaking new things if they are out of the ordinary routine or aside from the ordinary and accustomed path of daily life and custom.

Business matters are under a fairly suspicious sign. Push all affairs, but be sure that the hand be firm in control. Do not trust to chance or luck this day and all should be well.

Take heed against "falling torrents" and slippery edges.

Women with this birthdate should be careful to cultivate old friendships. There is a suggestion of a long voyage.

Men with this birthdate will find the twelvemonth a lively and active one. They must avoid speculation. Those in employment should make progress.

Suffrage in Hungary.

The new elections bill providing for universal suffrage in Hungary contains many novel provisions that are designed, as the preamble states, "to prevent the political power from falling wholly into the hands of illiterates," says Leslie's Weekly. Every man, 24 years of age, who has met the residence qualification, is entitled to a vote. Illiterates, however, will be assembled in groups of ten, and each group can select a single elector. As a further means of "preserving the ascendancy of the intelligent classes," the bill provides for a system of plural voting. All electors over 32 years of age, who have fulfilled their military duty and who have three or more children, are entitled to two votes; workmen who have spent five years at the same trade are also given a double vote; electors who have completed the full course of the secondary schools, or who pay $20 in direct annual taxation, can vote three times. To bribe ten men for one vote a political machine would think twice before it began to purchase the ballot.

Telephones in Business.

Judge Rentoul of London has refused to recognize the validity of agreements made by telephone unless they are subsequently confirmed in writing. The case at issue was a suit by a shipbuilding firm against some London merchants for supplies. The defendant alleged that by telephone an agreement had been made for the termination of the contract if no future business resulted, which had been the case. Judge Rentoul found for the plaintiff, saying he would hesitate long before he held that a man was necessarily bound by words that came over a telephone.

Great Engineering Project.

A prodigious piece of engineering projected in India is the connecting of Ceylon with the mainland by a bridge. At one point islands on either side of the channel reduce central space to be bridged to thirty-eight miles of shallow water. The bridge would follow the line of a coral reef, and in many places would be practically built on a causeway. The cost is estimated at $6,500,000, and it is believed that a railroad would pay. Among the advantages looked for is the admission of Ceylon, with her rich tea gardens, to the cheap labor market of South India. Also, it is hoped that the development of Ceylon would relieve the congestion in India. The Madras government and the Indian Railway Board are interested in the project.

MONTREAL QUAKE. Feb. 1.—Shortly before 2 o'clock this morning a strong earthquake shock followed by a light aftershock was felt in the night. An unknown number of people who had been aroused by the first tremor were largely frightened. In the west end, where the shock seems to have been most felt, a number of people prepared to leave their houses, but as the disturbance was not repeated, the excitement soon quieted down. The quake was not recorded on the seismograph at McGill University.

WIDOWS SEEK SOME REDRESS.

Promoter of Dead Insurance Order Unruffled.

He Coolly Starts New Deal from Ashes of Other.

Offers to Let Unfortunates Examine His Books.

There were two important developments yesterday in connection with C. P. Dandy's defense of "Fraternal Champions." Several members of the late order gathered in the office of Attorney W. G. Lincoln, No. 434 San Bernardino building, to talk over their plight and formulate a plan for legal action against Dandy, or the directors of the concern, should they be found responsible for its insolvency. This activity did not alarm Dandy. However, and it became known that this redoubtable lawyer of fraternal orders had blossomed forth as "supreme" boss of another one, while the wreckage of the "Champions" is not yet cleared away.

Dandy has displayed remarkable coolness in starting afresh, just as the eyes of the Insurance Commissioner is turned upon him, and his previous record known. He has managed to save enough for a new deal—a charter and a list of names—all that is needed to float a fraternal order. It seems with Dandy as usual.

This charter is especially valuable, for it is doubtful if he could get the State to give him another. How he happens to have it is worth noting. When he combined his Universal Order of Foresters with the Order of Foresters, on March 12, he saved the merger the name "Fraternal Champions," using the charter of the Order of Foresters. So while the "Fraternal Champions" has gone to smash, Dandy holds up squarely the saved charter at his new office at No. 430 South Broadway.

It is a shame to see an organizer ready for new business, but prepared to take on some of the old. He has in his possession the list of members of the defunct order, and he has made them this proposition:

COOL PROPOSAL.

That the Universal Order of Foresters, as it exists under the charter that was saved, will assume the legal liability on policies held by the members of the Fraternal Champions, or the old Order of Foresters, or the Universal Order of Foresters, if the holders will waive all claims for sick and death benefits.

This sounds fair, for it seems to give some of the policy holders, who paid at least half a run for their money, but there is more to be said.

The proposition is not open to every member, but only to the younger ones, who are considered good risks. All the old-timers, and women who paid their dollars for years, and who are now past the age limit and cannot get into any other order, are left out. They have been "unfortunate."

As one of Dandy's right-hand men said yesterday: "You cannot expect Dandy to take them in. Why, they would die in a few years, and he would have to pay out so much money that he would be in just as bad a fix as the one he has just got out of."

But there seems to be quite a difference of opinion as to whether Dandy is out of the "fix." According to Attorney Lincoln, there is good reason to believe whether the organizer and the directors of the Universal Order of Foresters, as it now exists, have a legal right to draw out of the old order—supposed to include the charter of the Foresters. This is a point for the courts.

A score of members of the defunct "Fraternal Champions" attended the meeting at the lawyer's office, and a pitiful affair. There were present a widowed mother of four children, who is destitute because her late husband's insurance policy was not paid; men who had belonged to the order for a long time and had nothing to show for what they had paid in; men past the age limit set by bona-fide life insurance companies, who have lost the savings of years and are left without hope.

VICTIMS AT MEETING.

Attorney Lincoln, after reading the circular letter sent out by the trustees of the late order, stated that the purpose of the meeting was to locate members of the order who had claims against it, and to see what could be done in the way of an investigation.

A. P. Tugwell, former Supreme Commander of the Order of Foresters, said that he had come to invite a thorough study of his actions prior to the merger of his fraternity with that of the Foresters.

Two men, who answered to the names of Schermerhorn and Black, and who said they were "organizers" for the defunct order, said they were on hand to represent C. P. Dandy and that he courted an examination of all his books by any fair-minded committee; that he had done the best he could with a bad proposition, and had failed, but that everything had been perfectly "honorable."

This was a bold front, but it did not seem to impress Mr. Margaret Brunswick of Norwalk, whose husband is dead and who has four children to care for. Brunswick carried a policy in Dandy's company, which called for $75 funeral benefit, and a pension of $10 a month after death. He died in August and since that time the widow said she has not received a cent. Her claim at the present amount to $2475 and only those who are acquainted with her circumstances know how much she needs the money.

Another widow with a partly paid policy is Mrs. Edith B. Morrison of No. 1154 West Thirty-fifth street. A balance of $1200 has been deposited here. Mrs. Genne M. Ruggles of No. 1316 Girard street, another widow, stated that she had a policy for $2485, and had only received $200.

Attorney Lincoln took a memorandum of these claims to use as a basis of any action to be taken against either C. P. Dandy or the directors of the defunct Fraternal Champions.

There were fifteen members of the late order present who had paid their dues regularly, and who insisted upon an investigation. The investigation committee was appointed to take advantage of Dandy's offer to allow an examination of his books, but none was appointed. Arrangements were finally made to hold another meeting in the near future, when the exact plan of procedure will be decided upon.

Many Druggists Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in Their Own Families.

Everyone must realize the dangers attending a severe cold, and that it is always prudent to remain in doors until the danger is past. Many, however, do not feel able to leave the house and will be interested in knowing the quickest way to break up a cold and to avoid the dangerous consequences which so often follow. Druggists who handle all kinds of medicines are familiar with prescriptions of the best physicians, know which medicines are the most successful, and when in need of a medicine for their own use will of course choose the one which is likely to be the most prompt and most effective. It has been observed that the druggists use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy themselves and in their families, and take pleasure in testifying to its good qualities. Dr. E. M. Town, the leading druggist of Broadhead, Wis., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years and have yet to hear of the first case of another one, while the wreckage of the 'Champions' is not yet cleared away. I would not be without it in my own home."

Attorney Lincoln took a memorandum of these claims to use as a basis of any action to be taken against either C. P. Dandy or the directors of the defunct Fraternal Champions.

There were fifteen members of the late order present who had paid their dues regularly, and who insisted upon an investigation. The investigation committee was appointed to take advantage of Dandy's offer to allow an examination of his books, but none was appointed. Arrangements were finally made to hold another meeting in the near future, when the exact plan of procedure will be decided upon.

LAWYER IN SAN FRANCISCO.

United States District Attorney Lawler is in San Francisco to attend to legal matters in connection with the appeal of the Santa Fe Railroad from the fine of $1000 imposed here by Judge Weilborn. The case comes up in the Circuit Court of Appeals on argument. Mr. Lawler will represent the government side of the controversy over the merits of the rebate case.

Our great annual Trade Sale is an event to which hundreds of economical Los Angeles women look forward. It not only means a big saving— but aside from these advertised items you can buy practically everything you want or need right here in The Big White Store at very, very small prices. A comparison will prove the savings possible.

Everyone must realize the dangers attending a severe cold, and that it is always prudent to remain in doors until the danger is past. Many, however, do not feel able to leave the house and will be interested in knowing the quickest way to break up a cold and to avoid the dangerous consequences which so often follow. Druggists who handle all kinds of medicines are familiar with prescriptions of the best physicians, know which medicines are the most successful, and when in need of a medicine for their own use will of course choose the one which is likely to be the most prompt and most effective. It has been observed that the druggists use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy themselves and in their families, and take pleasure in testifying to its good qualities. Dr. E. M. Town, the leading druggist of Broadhead, Wis., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years and have yet to hear of the first case of another one, while the wreckage of the 'Champions' is not yet cleared away. I would not be without it in my own home."

"I got plenty, more as plenty, more as I could use."

It is a shame to see an organizer ready for new business, but prepared to take on some of the old. He has in his possession the list of members of the defunct order, and he has made them this proposition:

COOL PROPOSAL.

That the Universal Order of Foresters, as it exists under the charter that was saved, will assume the legal liability on policies held by the members of the Fraternal Champions, or the old Order of Foresters, or the Universal Order of Foresters, if the holders will waive all claims for sick and death benefits.

This sounds fair, for it seems to give some of the policy holders, who paid at least half a run for their money, but there is more to be said.

The proposition is not open to every member, but only to the younger ones, who are considered good risks. All the old-timers, and women who paid their dollars for years, and who are now past the age limit and cannot get into any other order, are left out. They have been "unfortunate."

As one of Dandy's right-hand men said yesterday: "You cannot expect Dandy to take them in. Why, they would die in a few years, and he would have to pay out so much money that he would be in just as bad a fix as the one he has just got out of."

But there seems to be quite a difference of opinion as to whether Dandy is out of the "fix." According to Attorney Lincoln, there is good reason to believe whether the organizer and the directors of the Universal Order of Foresters, as it now exists, have a legal right to draw out of the old order—supposed to include the charter of the Foresters. This is a point for the courts.

A score of members of the defunct "Fraternal Champions" attended the meeting at the lawyer's office, and a pitiful affair. There were present a widowed mother of four children, who is destitute because her late husband's insurance policy was not paid; men who had belonged to the order for a long time and had nothing to show for what they had paid in; men past the age limit set by bona-fide life insurance companies, who have lost the savings of years and are left without hope.

VICTIMS AT MEETING.

Attorney Lincoln, after reading the circular letter sent out by the trustees of the late order, stated that the purpose of the meeting was to locate members of the order who had claims against it, and to see what could be done in the way of an investigation.

A. P. Tugwell, former Supreme Commander of the Order of Foresters, said that he had come to invite a thorough study of his actions prior to the merger of his fraternity with that of the Foresters.

Two men, who answered to the names of Schermerhorn and Black, and who said they were "organizers" for the defunct order, said they were on hand to represent C. P. Dandy and that he courted an examination of all his books by any fair-minded committee; that he had done the best he could with a bad proposition, and had failed, but that everything had been perfectly "honorable."

This was a bold front, but it did not seem to impress Mr. Margaret Brunswick of Norwalk, whose husband is dead and who has four children to care for. Brunswick carried a policy in Dandy's company, which called for $75 funeral benefit, and a pension of $10 a month after death. He died in August and since that time the widow said she has not received a cent. Her claim at the present amount to $2475 and only those who are acquainted with her circumstances know how much she needs the money.

Another widow with a partly paid policy is Mrs. Edith B. Morrison of No. 1154 West Thirty-fifth street. A balance of $1200 has been deposited here. Mrs. Genne M. Ruggles of No. 1316 Girard street, another widow, stated that she had a policy for $2485, and had only received $200.

Attorney Lincoln took a memorandum of these claims to use as a basis of any action to be taken against either C. P. Dandy or the directors of the defunct Fraternal Champions.

There were fifteen members of the late order present who had paid their dues regularly, and who insisted upon an investigation. The investigation committee was appointed to take advantage of Dandy's offer to allow an examination of his books, but none was appointed.
